UNIVERSITY EXPERT IN WEB ENGINEERING

👋 Hello! I am Leandro, University Specialist in Web Engineering. I have more than 11 years of experience working in sales, design, community manager and as a team leader, so I recognize the importance of responsibility, respect, commitment, continuous response and problem-solving ability to collaborate with the team and its leaders effectively.

⭐ A great achievement for me has been founding an image development company, delegating activities and expanding my services to Community Manager in Hostels in Europe and Africa, which has allowed us to increase the level of English and the multicultural appreciation of users.

🔥My dream is to be a Product Manager and apply my skills, empathy and ideas together with a powerful team to create products that optimize people's lives.
